NO. 12.

Pearson Memorial Service.

Owen Church was well filled Sunday evening with the people of Sequachee and vicinity who had assembled for the service in memory of Mr. Clarence H. Pearson and the large attendance was peculiarly gratifying, showing as it did the estimation in which he was held.

The service opened with singing "All is well with my soul," which was followed by the reading of the 90th Psalm by Rev. E. W. Walker, pastor. Then singing "Sometime we'll understand," after which prayer was offered by Mr. Walker. A beautiful solo, "Nearer Home," was then sung by Miss Elin Gustafson, after which Major Thomas H. Hill was introduced, who presented a biographical sketch of Mr. Pearson, and also read selections from his poems, among others "The Prayer Cure in the Pines," "The Wail of a Soldier," "Forgiveness" and "The Christmas Stocking." This was followed by singing "Lead Kindly Light," and Rev. S. S. Catron, of Jasper, followed in a splendid address, full of thought and replete with bright imagery and argument, and delivered in that manly style which always characterizes his addresses. Rev. E. W. Walker then briefly thanked the congregation for the attendance and sympathy. Singing, "O Morning Land," by the choir, and benediction by Rev. S. S. Catron closed the services.

The singing by a special choir consisting of Mrs. C. E. Cunningham, Misses Emma Gabel, Mathilde, Lydia and Elin Gustafson, Maude Brown, and Louise Hill, and Mr. C. J. Gustafson, was beautiful, tender and appropriate. The solo by Miss Elin Gustafson was beautifully rendered.

The most respectful attention was accorded the speakers, who made allusion to the care and attention, and heroic devotion of Mrs. Pearson to her husband. The service throughout was an inspiring one, and we believe it will be long remembered.

A Dark Picture.

We had one killing, a lot of drunks and a number of reported fights in the city last Saturday. In fact we are told that we had an excessively large quota of brawls and drunks on that day. We cannot testify on our personal evidence. We confess that it was in apprehension of these scenes and episodes that we attempted some time ago to raise the question on the propriety of holding the later-dedominational Sunday school convention in this city. Drunks, brawls and Sunday school talks don't mix well according to our sense of proprieties. But perhaps the lesson in favor of the church and Sunday school could not have been so striking, sublime and potent but for the contrast in the two scenes on that day. Evidently those who came to the city for their drinks and jug of liquor landed in that quarter of the town. The scene of the convention was nearly a mile distant under one of our "first temples," and not an incident to mar its harmony and music. There is a sermon of tremendous significance in the contrast. But space limits us to the respectfully expressed suggestion that we have two excursion trains to our next Sunday school convention—one for the patrons of the liquor jug and the other for the Sunday school folks. We believe in the widest range of personal liberty consistent with the rights of other people.—South Pittsburg Statesman Democrat.

MARRIED.

Dr. J. R. Gatt and Miss Zella Moore were married at 3 p. m. Thursday at Cedar Springs, Rev. G. H. Mack officiating. Dr. Gatt is a prominent physician of this county and was recently appointed by Gov. McMillin prison physician at Inman. Miss Moore is the belle of Cedar Springs. The News extends its congratulations to the happy couple and wish them a long and prosperous life.

DUNLAP.

Special to the News:
DUNLAP, Sept. 23.—Rev. A. D. Stewart now occupies the W. A. Moore residence on Rankin Avenue.

The family of W. R. Martin have moved back from Pikeville and now occupy the Walker residence on Cherry Street which he bought from W. H. Walker some time ago.

Mr. Colston, of Whitwell, who has been working in the mines for some time, contemplates moving here in the near future.

Prof. and Mrs. T. F. Ewton, of Decatur, spent a part of last week here visiting friends and relatives.

Stewart & Alley have had their store building on Rankin Avenue painted. If the rest of the merchants would have their buildings painted it would give Dunlap a fine appearance. There are a lot of residences in town that ought to be painted and then our town, with a few shade trees set out, would be one of the finest looking towns in the state.

W. A. Moore is going to have his store and dwelling painted as soon as his order of paint comes.

H. C. Stewart, one of the many readers of the News, left last week to enter the Chattanooga Normal University. He will hereafter mix a little news up with his many studies and therefore make a good mixture. That's right, Henry, if you will keep it up the sweet young ladies will like you more and when you go out to hunt up the lost rib it will not be hard to find as they will be flocking around you like bees after a stick of candy.

A horse thief entered the stable of D. J. Graham near Fillmore last week and stole his fine blue saddle mare. The mare was found near Rockwood where she had been sold for thirty dollars, but no clue to the thief has been found.

Four "wild catters" from Blount county were brought before United States Commissioner Carpenter last week. Two made bond and the other two being unable to make bond, were sent to Chattanooga jail Thursday morning. C. W. McCall, of Chattanooga, was the arresting officer and he makes a good one.

Mrs. Jim Ebenhower, and son Oscar, visited relatives at South Pittsburg Sunday.

Dr. Perry Stone, of Tracy City, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stone near Daus this week.

The school at this place under the management of Misses Eva Word and Alley Lamb is progressing nicely, there being something near 175 students.

Ask D. E. B. how the landlord is.

GEO. BYRD DEAD.

A Prominent Young Citizen Passes Away.

DUNLAP, Sept. 25.—Special to the News.—Geo. Byrd died Friday at 10 a. m., after an illness of several months, aged 23 years. He was a son of the late William Byrd and his death was a shock to the whole community. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him and had many sterling qualities. Self-educated, as his father was financially unable to send him to school, he promised a brilliant career in politics and business. He was well known in this county and other parts of the Valley, and was without an enemy. He leaves a mother, several sisters and a brother to mourn his loss. He belonged to the Missionary Baptist Church at this place, and was one of its most active members. The interment took place at the Rankin graveyard Saturday evening at 4 o'clock.

O. R. BLALOCK.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN.

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused terrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 30 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Blisters, Feloons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile Cure on earth. 50c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by W. R. Ketner, Whitwell.

Public School.

Visiting the public school in Sequachee Friday last we were glad to note the good order and discipline prevailing and the intelligent application of the school to their work. The primary school has filled up rapidly and with 50 scholars the room is quite full and suggests need of more accommodation for primary school. The secondary school is doing good work and the people of this place have good reason to be proud of their school.

Mr. T. E. Harris is the visitor for this week.

Literary Society.

A News reporter visited the Literary Society Friday and was surprised to find such an intelligent and orderly body of debaters. The subject for discussion was "Resolved that Queen Elizabeth was justified in the execution of Mary Queen of Scots." Joe Kilgore was first affirmative, W. S. Pryor second affirmative spoke very intelligently on the subject. Prof. H. E. Tate followed as second negative with an oration bristling with arguments, which won for his side the debate. The judges were Messrs. Chas. Curtis, Laurence Barnett and William C. Hill, who carefully noted the points made and judged accordingly.

The following new members were elected: Alice Austin, Sam Robinson, C. C. Curtis, Spears Robinson and Jesse Copping.

The subject for debate next Saturday night will be "Resolved that when a mob punishes a guilty man it is itself more guilty than the perpetrator of the crime," and three debaters have been named for each side. Miss Maud Brown will read and there will be lots of beautiful music, violin by Mr. W. C. Hill, organ by Miss Louise Hill, mandolin by Miss Elin Gustafson and guitar by Mr. C. J. Gustafson.

Great Presidential Campaign of 1900.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidates discussed. The voice of the people as recorded by ballot at the approaching Presidential campaign will probably decide the policy of the nation for the next decade. Now is the time therefore, for every voter to subscribe for the best and most reliable newspaper obtainable. The Semi-Weekly Republic covers the whole field of political news. Its special features are the best. In fact, it is the paper for that large class of readers who cannot afford or do not have access to the daily papers.

Attention is also called to The Republic's Sunday Magazine. Its half-tone illustrations are alone worth the subscription price. It is made up of special articles by the best literary talent, embracing a variety of subjects of current interest. News features of absorbing interest are illustrated and enlarged upon. For the benefit of the ladies the latest fashions are handsomely illustrated. The Republic Sunday Magazine is always interesting to every member of the family.
